WINES & VINEYARDS

ASHLEY RAMSEY
ACCOUNTANT

Born and raised in the picturesque wine country of Sonoma, Ashley Ramsey has deep roots in a community known for its rich culture and vibrant lifestyle. Growing up in a wine-loving family, she gained a deep appreciation for the traditions and values of her hometown.

Ashley's educational journey began with an independent study high school program, which allowed her to cultivate a strong sense of discipline and self-direction. She furthered her studies at Santa Rosa Junior College, earning an Associate of Arts degree in Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Before joining Eco Terreno, Ashley honed her skills as a personal assistant and bookkeeper. Her career with Eco Terreno started at the age of 16, when she worked as an Office Assistant and assisted with events on weekends. Her dedication and enthusiasm for the company were evident from the beginning.

In 2022, Ashley officially rejoined Eco Terreno as an Administrative Assistant. With a growing interest in finance and accounting, she began taking specialized classes to deepen her expertise in these areas. This additional training allowed her to transition into a role focused on accounting, where she works closely with Jared to manage financial tasks efficiently.

Outside of work, Ashley is a dedicated dog lover, with her furry companions playing a central role in her life. Her passion for both her career and personal interests makes her an valuable member of our team, and we are truly grateful to have her with us.
