

ECO TERRENO
WINES & VINEYARDS

CARRIE FERREIRA
OPERATIONS MANAGER

Carrie Ferreira brings a unique and diverse background to her role at Eco Terreno, setting her apart with her distinctive experience in the wine industry. While she didn't start with a wine industry background, Carrie's six years of dedicated work at a wine shipping and fulfillment warehouse provided her with valuable insight into the logistics and intricacies of wine distribution.

Carrie first interacted with Eco Terreno through her role at the warehouse, where she handled the shipping of all their wine orders. Her familiarity with the company's operations sparked her interest when she learned about an administrative associate position that was conveniently located near her home. Seizing the opportunity, she applied and quickly made an impression.

Starting as an Administrative Associate, Carrie's keen organizational skills and proactive approach led to her advancement to Office Manager and then to Operations Manager. Her journey at Eco Terreno is a testament to her adaptability and dedication, as she seamlessly transitioned from managing administrative tasks to overseeing broader operational responsibilities.

Outside of her professional life, Carrie enjoys spending time with her family and her dog Gunnar. Her journey from warehouse operations to managing key aspects of Eco Terreno reflects her commitment to excellence and her ability to thrive in dynamic environments.
